SIXTY THIRD

Annual Dinner

THE BIGGEST EVENT IN THE GUILD'S YEARLY CALENDAR, AND HERE'S WHY...

If you ask any leading figures in the pipeline industry to name the one must-attend networking in the calendar, the answer is simple, The Pipeline Industries Guild's Annual Dinner.

In its 63rd year, this leading event simply packs more people of influence into one room than any other.

It's your opportunity to eat, drink and celebrate our industry with over 800 energy, utility and infrastructure professionals. And you, your clients and colleagues can do all that in the magnificent surroundings of the Great Room of the Grosvenor House Hotel, London.

The Guild welcomes bookings for full tables, half tables and individual places. Smaller parties and individual bookings will be asked to share tables, as this will enhance networking and socialising.

Doors open 6.30pm. Dinner starts at 7.30pm.

Remember – this one's not to be missed. See you there!

THANK YOU TO OUR ANNUAL DINNER SPONSORS:

GUEST SPEAKER

HUGH DENNIS

Hugh Dennis is a comedian, writer, actor, impressionist and voice-over artist, best known for his work with comedy partner Steve Punt and for the comedy series 'Outnumbered' and 'Mock the Week'. He is also a talented and captivating after dinner speaker and awards host.

Since August 2007 Dennis has starred in the hit BBC comedy 'Outnumbered,' a semi-improvised sitcom based around family life which has won numerous awards.

Hugh has been a guest on panel shows from QI to Would I Lie to You? and has gone on to a host of both comic and serious acting roles from New Tricks to Agatha Christie's Marple, Not Going Out to Doctors, Midsomer Murders to the acclaimed Fleabag.

CHARITY

CALM is leading a movement against suicide - the single biggest killer of young men in the UK, taking the lives of 18 people every day.

CALM works to change those facts by creating an open society where people feel empowered to seek support at the earliest stage and before crisis point.

Everything CALM does improve lives. We facilitate life-saving connections in an accessible way by using areas like comedy, sport and music to reach a broad audience. We're on beer mats, in workplaces and universities, on football kits and at gigs; because no-one is immune to poor mental wellbeing and suicidal feelings.

Our helpline and webchat are open 365 days a year, 5pm-midnight, and offer unique services where staff give practical suggestions for all of life's problems and provide vital intervention if someone's in imminent risk.

We're supporting more people than ever, and a potentially life-saving call costs just £8.

To find out more about CALM, please visit our website at www.thecalmzone.net

FRONTLINE SERVICES

Anyone can hit crisis point. We run a free and confidential helpline and webchat – 5pm until Midnight, 365 days a year for anyone who needs to talk about life's problems. Last year we answered over 88,000 calls and directly prevented 675 suicides. This year we are currently answering over 10,000 calls a month. We also work with the Support After Suicide partnership, who support people bereaved by suicide.
